Ah, ladies . . . my last post concerning the Mandarin Oriental's reception package featuring free borrowed jewels for the day from Lockes Diamonds resulted in my visiting their website. And look at the beauties I found! I know it's supposedly a "trend", what with Tiffany, etc., jumping on the celebration ring bandwagon, but . . . I've been a fan of sparkly eternity bands LONG before they decided upon their new marketing campaign! Aren't these LOVELY? I'll take the one on the far right!
